

Description: The Dr. Charles “Chip” Moody Memorial Homiletics Scholarship has been set aside for students enrolled in the Master of Divinity program at Phoenix Seminary. Dr. Moody, who was affectionately known as “Chip,” served as Vice President of Student Affairs at the Seminary. He was a professor of preaching and pastoral leadership, passionately training students to shepherd with a scholar’s heart.

Who Can Apply: Students in the Master of Divinity degree program who are called to the ministry of expository preaching.

Award: This award is equal to $3,000 per academic year applied to the cost of tuition for credit courses only. This is for one academic year with no guarantee of continuation. Students must reapply every academic year.

Requirements:

- Recipients must be pursuing a Master of Divinity degree and complete a minimum of 3 credit hours in both the fall and spring semesters.
- Recipients must also maintain a cumulative GPA of at least 2.5 to be eligible for this award.
- Recipients must submit a “thank you” note upon receipt of this scholarship.

How to Apply: To apply, students must complete a Distinguished Scholarship Application and a Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA).

Additional Terms and Details:

- This award may be combined with other scholarships, discounts, or grants offered or administrated by Phoenix Seminary. If a student has been awarded an academic scholarship (President’s, Deans, Shepherds, or Provosts), the academic scholarship will be applied to a student’s net semester tuition balance after all other internal or external scholarships or grants have been applied.
- This award may be used to cover the tuition cost of this required course taken for-credit only. This award may not be applied to any non-credit courses, fees, or textbooks.
- Students on Academic Probation or Disciplinary Probation will become ineligible for the award in the subsequent semesters. Students may reapply once the probation has been lifted.
- Students may appeal the loss of their scholarship via an official petition. Student may request an appeal form by contacting their Student Service Advisor (SSA). Students will be notified of the decision within two weeks of submitting the appeal. All appeal decisions are final.
- This scholarship is awarded without regard to race, gender, ethnicity, or national origin.
- All scholarship awards are subject to available funding.
